

My Speech has had a wonderful reception, from all classes. I speak next week before the American colored people

Very truly,

Wm. L. Chapin

Wm. L. Garrison

Boston

Mass

Slavery and West-Point, twins, class-interests have gone down before this Revolution. No Oligarchy: no Military dominance?

May I ask you to re-publish, for me,
"The Judge's Decision", which I wrote and sent to you in September three years ago - or in August: I have no copy & am frequently asked for it.
It was a poem..

You intend to write the Liberator & Standard! Well, I suppose, even our own loved land-marks, must go down before the Revolution. I'm sorry for any such merging of Individual
-ities. - I enclose the money for the Liberator Credit me this amount.

seldom occurred. It embraces all classes.

The Military have done all they could to destroy the Free State; and ^{the} ~~his~~ ^{Generals} friends.

Many have been summarily arrested upon various pretexts, and imprisoned. The 'set' at me, was heavy. Happily there is nothing - not even money
- making against me, and they let me alone at my duties.

Their purpose was to get hold of the Legislature. So, I wrote the enclosed Resolutions which were passed, forthwith.

The bayonets dare not assail a body that has adopted such Resolutions.

Possibly I sent them to You before. These are military secrets, please do not use this, or I shall be in Fortugas. Thank God,

Private

New Orleans La

Dec 3 1864 1864

Very dear Sir

The "True Delta"

¹⁹³ is setting up your admirable Editorial upon Banks. It may be out in time, to send you tomorrow. It has given the most lively Satisfaction here to all who have read it.

I have said to the General a hundred times that, you would see the truth thro' all. It is very rough, here just now. The policy of Canby & Harwell seems to be, to undo whatever Banks did. There is one universal cry for Gen Banks to return.

I think 20,000 people would meet him on the levee. A reaction so complete has